

Title: My Mate The King – Psalm 93

Read:

¹⁻² God is King, robed and ruling, God is robed and surging with strength. And yes, the world is firm, immovable, Your throne ever firm—you're Eternal! ³⁻⁴ Sea storms are up, God, Sea storms wild and roaring, Sea storms with thunderous breakers. Stronger than wild sea storms, Mightier than sea-storm breakers, Mighty God rules from High Heaven. ⁵ What you say goes—it always has. "Beauty" and "Holy" mark your palace rule, God, to the very end of time.

Think:

Probably one of the smaller chapters of the Bible, but man what a message. Who's king? Who rules the universe? Not that guy at school who gives you grief, no they are not King. Not that adult that can't see the things you do right and concentrates only the stuff you muck up on. No they do not rule the universe. The Lord our God is King. The God that sent his son to die for you, is King of the universe. You are literally mates with the King of kings. How cool is that? Sometimes we can miss that our God is a majestic, perfect King. We are so chuffed that he cares for us, that we concentrate on the fact his is our friend, and miss the fact that he is also our regal King. Sometimes in the business of school, college and work, we forget that we are living out lives for the King of eternity. Maybe we need to hear and repeat that our God is King more often.

Pray:

Lord I do acknowledge that you are King. Thank you for ruling my life. Amen.

Action:

Listen to this chapter one more time and this time as you hear it think of your King.

¹⁻² God is King, robed and ruling, God is robed and surging with strength. And yes, the world is firm, immovable, Your throne ever firm—you're Eternal! ³⁻⁴ Sea storms are up, God, Sea storms wild and roaring, Sea storms with thunderous breakers. Stronger than wild sea storms, Mightier than sea-storm breakers, Mighty God rules from High Heaven. ⁵ What you say goes—it always has. "Beauty" and "Holy" mark your palace rule, God, to the very end of time.